

RSE@ INVERNESS

The Royal Society of Edinburgh

KNOWLEDGE MADE USEFUL

proudly presents

Colours of Art & Science

16 March 2019, 10.30am - 4pm
Bishop's Palace, Eden Court Theatre, Inverness

Join us to discover how colour is important to medicine, photography, marine science, fashion, forensics, chemistry and much more!

Listen to expert talks; explore interactive displays; and participate in creative fashion and illustration workshops.

Full programme and booking details at: www.rse.org.uk/events

FREE! Age 7 to Adult

Activities include...

Talks

What has chromatography ever done for you?

Professor Phillip Whitfield, University of Highlands & Islands

Feeling, Dreaming, Learning: The Sense of Colours in Children's Fashion

Dr Aude Le Guennec, Heriot-Watt University

The Art of Science

Professor Rory Duncan, Heriot-Watt University

Colours of the Aurora Borealis

Dr Kenny Taylor

The Elements of Colour and the New Periodic Table of the Elements

*Professor David Cole-Hamilton
FRSE, University of St Andrews*

Creative Workshops

Illustrating Nature

Claudia Wellwood, Freelance Illustrator

The Colours of Children's Fashion

Maija Nygren, Designer

Interactive Displays

Ever wonder how a crime can be solved by examining a finger?

Come and find out how separating coloured substances and the spectrum of light are important in forensic science!

Full programme and booking details at:
www.rse.org.uk/events

 /newsRSE  @news_RSE

The Royal Society of Edinburgh, Scotland's National Academy, Scottish Charity No. SC000470

